APD Detectives seek assistance in Attempted Kidnapping case

Case: 09-3611311

Date: Sunday, December 27, 2009

Time: 5:54 p.m.

Location: 2400 block of Wagon Crossing Path

Narrative:

The Austin Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in locating suspects related to an attempted Kidnapping that occurred on Sunday, Dec. 27, 2009 in the 2400 block of Wagon Crossing Path.

One of the suspect vehicles is described as a Brown or Beige Ford Crown Victoria (or Mercury Grand Marquis), most likely a 1992-1997 model. The vehicle had Chrome 'Spinner' style wheels and a mild window tint.

The first suspect was the passenger in the above vehicle. He approached the victim, spoke to her in Spanish and English with a heavy Spanish accent, grabbed her by the arm, and attempted to pull her into backseat of the vehicle.

He has a possible tattoo of "187" on the webbing of one (possibly right) hand. He was last seen wearing a long black t-shirt, black "Dickies" style pants, plain black shoes, possibly Nikes.

The second suspect was the driver of the vehicle. He was last seen wearing a white t-shirt and blue jeans. This suspect exited the vehicle but did not assist in attempting to take the victim.

A third suspect was in a white Ford Crown Victoria (or Mercury Grand Marquis), most likely a 1992-1997 model with mild window tint. He did not exit the vehicle.
